

Breakfast and other Talks

ARE THOSE BREAKFAST TALKS GETTING A LITTLE "SAMEY"?

Would you like to spice them up a little so that your people actually want to come to them? Lets face it for so long as you keep on serving up the same old pap do not expect any results to change too much either.

If you want something comfortable that does not stir the pot then Christopher is NOT for you! You may not agree with what he has to say on a very wide variety of both business and personal topics, and – guaranteed - nobody will be bored! So if you would like your people to start to look long and hard and what and how they do things let us have a chat about the possibilities.

You name the topic and Christopher will be very frank in telling you whether or not he can add value. On the other hand if you would like some suggestions&hellip;&hellip;&hellip;!
